
Reflection Guide

In what ways did this movie show you something new about forgiveness?

What was your view of priests before and then after watching this film?

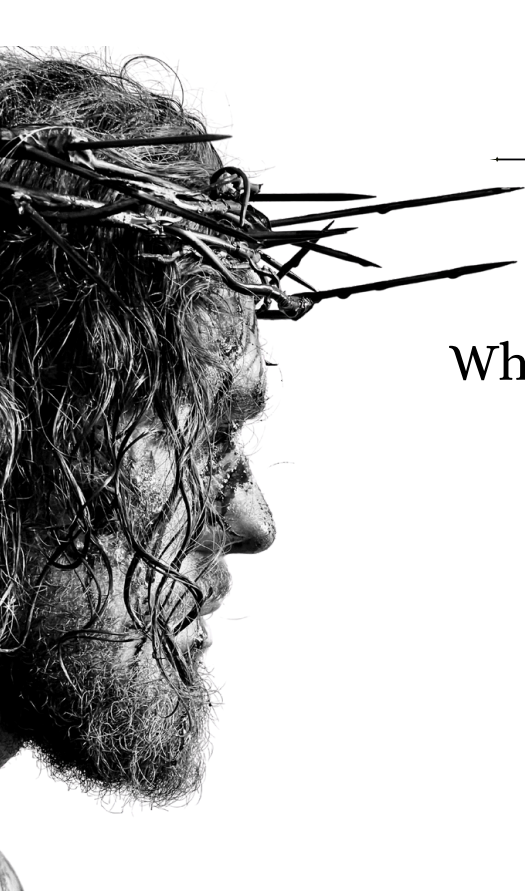

Who have you not truly forgiven? (including yourself)?

What would it look like for you to truly forgive that person?

When you experienced Fr. Zachary blame himself for the accident, what memories came up in your personal life that you blame yourself for?

What would it look like to let that go?

When you saw Fr. Zachary forgive Hank, what did you feel?

How could you apply what you have seen in this movie
to your own life?
